Cancellation Policy

Paying in advance is not mandatory, but if you do so, no charge for cancellation 21 working days prior to arrival. 50% of the total fees for cancellation 15 working days prior arrival. Fees cannot be refunded for courses or parts of courses missed due to late arrival, illness, early departure and/or other circumstances that do not form part of the cancellation policy.

If you require a visa, you must pay 30% of the amount in advance, excluding special conditions for each country. If you are denied a visa, we will return your advance payment in full, apart from the administrative costs incurred (€250) and accommodation expenses (€140), as long as the cancellation is performed within at least 7 working days prior to arrival.

For the return of the payment advanced before the rejection of the visa application, the student must notify us in writing and attach the official notification (including date, seal and signature) issued by the Spanish Embassy or Consulate. In the official notification of refusal, the student's name, passport number and the visa requested are clearly shown.
